Wine List

The House Wines

After many hours of cork popping and tasting I have decided which wines we are going to feature in our new house wine selection.

I have chosen wines from different areas that I feel are currently producing some superb wines at exceptional value.

One of the rising stars at the moment is the south of France, and I am particularly passionate of the La Campagne range, if you are unfamiliar to the viognier grape then this is where you should start, it has a classic peachy/apricot finish. The syrah thrives in the sunny south giving this rich, juicy wine a soft spicy palate.
